Academic Leadership

Summary O'Donnell has led multiple academic and professional organisations, including the Confederation of Alberta Faculty Associations (CAFA), University of Lethbridge Faculty Association (ULFA), Future of Research Communication and E-Scholarship (Force11), Global Outlook::Digital Humanities (GO::DH), and the Text Encoding Initiative Consortium (TEI). He has chaired major digital infrastructure and policy boards, founded scholarly and advocacy groups, and served as department chair at Lethbridge. In these roles, he has often been asked to take leadership during moments of structural transition and policy change.

2024– Past President, Confederation of Alberta Faculty Associations (CAFA).
Continued strategic advocacy. Helped establish quarterly meetings with the Deputy Minister and staff at the Ministry of Advanced Education (Alberta). Co-presenter to the Expert Panel on Post-Secondary Institution Funding and Alberta's Competitiveness (Mintz Panel). Assisted in the production of podcasts and in writing op-eds and related public-relations material.

2023–2026 Department Chair, Department of English, University of Lethbridge.
2005–2008 Led the department following the unexpected departure of the previous chair (2005–2008) and again after a decade of external leadership (2023–2026). Oversaw completion of an overdue Academic Quality Review (2024) and began the process of backfilling hires lost during the previous decade in response to budget cuts. Replaced by internal successors both terms.

2010–2025 Editor-in-Chief, Digital Studies / Le champ numérique (DSCN), Canadian Society for Digital Humanities/Société canadienne des humanités numériques (CSDH/SCHN).
Assumed editorial leadership of the national journal in digital humanities studies at the end of volume 2. Established an alternate funding model to preserve Open Access status. Oversaw approval for membership in the Open Library of the Humanities (OLH). Edited fifteen volumes.

2023–2025 Past President, University of Lethbridge Faculty Association (ULFA).
Supported the transition to new leadership. Advised on grievance resolution, governance, member relations, communications, and bargaining. Negotiated a memorandum of understanding extending the ULFA/University of Lethbridge collective agreement to cover faculty at the University of Lethbridge International College Calgary (UICC), a new Navitas/University of Lethbridge collaboration—the first agreement nationally to extend collective-agreement protections fully to instructors in a Navitas-led college.

2023–2024 President, Confederation of Alberta Faculty Associations (CAFA).
Assumed the role immediately following the loss of a major member (two-thirds of CAFA's income). Rebuilt the organisation and expanded connections to other post-secondary and civil-society organisations in the province, western Canada, and nationally. Redesigned public- and government-relations practices, resulting in improved press coverage and regular meetings with government officials. Led a successful inter-sectoral lobbying effort on Bill 18 (with Rural Municipalities of Alberta and the University of Alberta). Helped found the Western Regional Council.

2021–2023 President, University of Lethbridge Faculty Association (ULFA).
Led Association communications and preparations for job action during two years of negotiations. Oversaw the Association during six-week job action in February and March 2022 (92% strike vote, 91% ratification). Led the restoration of management–union relations after the strike.

2020–2021 Vice-President, University of Lethbridge Faculty Association (ULFA).
Assisted the president in major grievance cases while leading bargaining.

2015–2021 Chief Spokesperson and Bargaining Chair (2018–2021); Chief Spokesperson, Handbook (2015–2018), University of Lethbridge Faculty Association (ULFA).
Led the Association's negotiating teams in contract negotiations and prepared the Association for changes in lockout/strike rules resulting from the Supreme Court Saskatchewan Federation of Labour decision. Successfully negotiated two collective agreements (2016–2018 and 2016–2020) and began negotiations on the 2022–2024 agreement before election as ULFA president. Helped lead the successful campaign for establishment of a $2 million Strike/Lockout Fund (78.5% in favour) in Spring 2016—the first such fund ratified at an Alberta university—and for doubling the union mill rate (87% in favour). Established communications policies for the period following unionisation.

2018–2019 President, Force11 (Future of Research Communication and E-Scholarship).
Oversaw the launch of the FORCE11 Scholarly Communication Institute (FSCI) and expanded global FAIR and Open Science policy advocacy.

2013–2017 Vice-President, Force11 (Future of Research Communication and E-Scholarship).
Built global partnerships in scholarly communication and infrastructure.

2015–2017 Founding Director, Lethbridge Centre for the Study of Scholarly Communication.
Created an institutional centre supporting interdisciplinary research and innovation in Open Science and scholarly communication.

2012–2015 Founding Chair, Global Outlook::Digital Humanities (GO::DH).
Founded an equity-centred digital humanities network credited with leading the "global turn" in digital humanities research. Initiated multilingual and regional digital humanities programmes.

2010–2013 Co-President, Canadian Society for Digital Humanities (CSDH/SCHN).
Coordinated national digital humanities strategy and membership growth.

2009–2012 Chair, Digital Initiatives Advisory Board, Medieval Academy of America (MAA).
Guided the MAA's digital infrastructure strategy; advised on journal and archive digitisation.

2006–2011 Chair and CEO, Text Encoding Initiative (TEI).
Restructured TEI governance; launched the member-led consortium; oversaw publication of revised TEI Guidelines; developed TEI Tite with funding from the Mellon Foundation.

2004–2009 Editor-in-Chief, Digital Medievalist (DM-J), Digital Medievalist (DM).
Founding Editor-in-Chief of Digital Medievalist an early Diamond Open Access journal published by the Digital Medievalist Community of Practice. Edited five volumes and served as Associate Editor and publisher for an additional twenty years. Moved the journal to the Open Library of the Humanities and funded production costs from 2004–2025 through the Lethbridge Journal Incubator.

2003–2009 Founding Director, Digital Medievalist (DM).
Established a pioneering digital community of practice for medievalists working with digital media. Built the project's infrastructure and journal.

1987–1988 In-course Scholarship, St. Michael's College, University of Toronto, Declined, CA$1,500

Major Projects

Summary O'Donnell has been Principal Investigator (PI) on several multi-year, multi-phase projects. In many cases, these have been funded by more than one internal or external grant.

2024– #safespaces? Speaker-Centred Rights, Discursive Power, and the Changing Stakes in Debates about Academic Freedom, Examines how political polarisation and campus speech discourses intersect with evolving understandings of academic freedom.
Funding: SSHRC Insight Development Grant 2026–2028, PI, $75,000.

2022– Resistance to Data: Humanities Approaches to Research Classification and Infrastructure, Umbrella initiative investigating epistemic and institutional resistance to structured data in the humanities. Builds on the earlier Good Things Come in Small Packages and Humanities Data Inquiry (HDI) projects.
Funding: SSHRC Insight Grant 2025–2029, PI, $300,000; SSHRC PDG 2021–2023, PI, $200,000.

2005– The Visionary Cross: Modelling the Ruthwell Cross, Bewcastle Cross, and Brussels Cross, A digital edition and visualisation of the Ruthwell Cross and related artefacts. Combines philology, archaeology, and imaging. Includes multi-format outputs and graduate training.
Funding: Chinook Summer Student Grant 2025 ($6,000); Mitacs Global Interns; SSHRC Insight Grant 2014–2017 ($282,190); SSHRC SRG 2005–2008 ($62,430).

2012–2026 Lethbridge Journal Incubator: Using Open Access publication to provide work-integrated learning opportunities to graduate students, Training and mentorship programme in scholarly publishing. Provided over twenty graduate students with Work Integrated Learning in academic publishing. Facilitated the publication of over 400 articles across peer-reviewed open-access journals including Canadian Journal of Netherlandic Studies (2011–2018), Digital Medievalist (2010–2024), and Digital Studies / Le champ numérique (2010–2026).
Funding: Approx. $750,000 (grants, subventions, and in-kind support). SSHRC Aid to Scholarly Journals (PI); School of Graduate Studies; School of Graduate Studies Strategic Opportunities Fund (SOF); Alliance of Digital Humanities Organizations (ADHO).

2004–2021 Future Commons: Transforming Scholarly Communication through collective action, An umbrella project that involved exploring collective approaches towards solving problems in the funding, training, and management of various aspects of scholarly communication. Major organisational outputs from this work included the foundation of the Global Outlook::Digital Humanities Community of Practice (2012-); the Force11 Scholarly Communications Institute (FSCI; 2017-); the Journal Incubator (2012–2026); Digital Medievalist (2004–); and the development of "TEI Tite," a minimal markup language based on the TEI P5 standard.
Funding: SSHRC Connections Grant, Canada-LATAM Workshop on open and inclusive access to research (2020–2021), $25,000; Sloan Foundation, REPO: Reimagining Education Practices for Open (2020–2021), US$50,000; SSHRC Partnership Development Grant, Future Commons (2017–2019), $200,000; Mellon Foundation, Reading Peer Review (2017–2018), US$99,000 (Coapplicant); Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation, Principles of the Scholarly Commons (2014–2015), US$150,000 (Coapplicant); Mellon Foundation, TEI Tite: Creating a benefit of membership to support standards development (2008), US$30,723; SSHRC Information, Text, Sound, and Technology Networking Grant, The Digital Medievalist Project: A Community of Practice network (2005–2006), $27,490.

Research Communication

Summary O'Donnell began his publication career as an undergraduate, with an article on the linguistics and translation of Beowulf*, and has continued to publish regularly since then on topics in Old English studies, textual criticism, the digital humanities, open science, academic freedom, and diversity and equity studies.*

While much of his work has been in traditional academic genres (books, peer reviewed articles, chapters, etc.), he has also published in various novel forms, going back to his participation, in 1991, in an early attempt at using email to develop an academic publication (see Earl et al. 1990, below: Non-traditional publication forms).

Books

Summary O'Donnell has published monographs, editions, and edited collections with Cambridge University Press, Boydell & Brewer/Medieval Academy of America, and the University of Alberta Press. His edition of Cædmon's Hymn (2005) was honourable mention for most distinguished critical edition (2007, MLA) and reprinted in an internet edition in 2018 (SEENET).
